

Appendix 2 - FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS

(see also Organisation Rules, EOR)

A. GENERALLY, AUTORISATIONS

1. The affiliated federations commit to report to the board of the CEB all international events of billiards which take place in their country, taking care to respect the deadlines for authorisations. For all international tournaments, authorisations have to be requested to the CEB through the respective national federations. The tournaments and organisations will be authorised and take over in the sports calendar as soon as the previous organising fees - or at least 50% of them - are arrived on the account of the CEB Tournaments, for which no written authorisation has been issued, count as wild tournaments and the organising federations as well as the organisers, the sportsmen and the referees, will be sanctioned.
2. All European championships, Grand-Prix-CEB tournaments can be provided with sports promotion prizes whose amount is fixed in the particular rules or circumstantial disposals, with the exception of championships and tournaments for youth and juniors.
3. The organizer is obliged to pay the prizes in Euro (€) on the place, according the respective sports rules.
4. Generally, the expenses for travelling and staying are not to be paid by the organiser, unless other arrangements are specified in the respective rules or circumstantial disposals.
5. The attribution of championships and tournaments on the CEB field is in the competence of the board of the CEB. Applications for organizations must reach the CEB by the national federations.
6. These arrangements enter into force in the sports season 2012/2013 and cancel all prior or opposite dispositions on the subject.

This amount increases to € 250.00 for each participating team in the championships for national teams and club teams.

Until the arrangement with UMB exists, the federations have to pay to CEB for the participation of teams and/or individual sportsmen at World championships, a single inscription fee about 250,00 €, it does not matter how many sportsmen/teams they have committed.

D. ANNUAL FEES OF THE FEDERATIONS

All accepted CEB - federations are automatically attached over the CEB at the UMB so far as their financial engagements are in paid.

In the following CEB – contributions, the contributions of the worldbody (UMB) are contained.

Attending representatives of federations at the UMB congress received of the CEB according (Votes federations UMB) to their free representation of their federation in the UMB congress. Presupposition is therefore, that theirs due liabilities are paid before the UMB congress.

At the time of new admissions of national federations, the CEB board decides, after seeing the federal facts, of their classification. The CEB board can adjust the whole royalties of the CEB federations to the changes of contributions or licence fees towards the UMB. This is valid also for any change of the voting rights for UMB.

E. ALLOWANCES

For the competitions where allowances have to be paid, the rate is € 150,00 per day including overnight stay (number of units to pay = number of competition days + 1 unit for the travel go and return all in all). For the eliminate sportsmen present at the closing ceremony, the continuation of the payment is obligatory, always that allowances are planned for a competition.

F. PENALTIES

As soon as a tournament or an EC is allocated and even if it is given back to the CEB or does not take place on the territory of this federation, the organizing fees must be paid by this federation.

For the championships without organizing fee an amount of € 1.500,00 must be paid in case of non-organization.

G. TRAVELLING EXPENSES OF THE EUROPEAN INDIVIDUAL CHAMPION WHO TAKES PART AT A WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

The travelling expenses of the European champion are at charge of the CEB, only if it is an individual competition outside of Europe, and if they are not paid by the organizer. The preferential rates offered by the airlines must be used (above 500 km). The organizer has to support the expenses if the World Championship is in Europe.

This costs for travelling expenses are not paid for championships where money prizes are distributed. As far as the sports rules of UMB, for exemple example the WC/GP, didn't have another solution.

H. DUNNING COSTS

If a federation is in arrears with a payment, a fee of € 50.00 will be charged for the 1st reminder. From the 2nd reminder on that fee increases to 100,00 € and increases with each further reminder by € 100.00.
